

LeadingAge is a national association of more than 5,400 not-for-profit organizations dedicated to expanding the world of possibilities for aging. Through the continuum of housing and community based services, including adult day services, home health, hospice, community services, senior housing, assisted living residences, continuing care retirement communities and nursing homes, LeadingAge members touch the lives of millions of individuals and families every day. LeadingAge extends its mission and core values to 39 state partners, businesses, research partners, consumer organizations, foundations and a broad global network of aging service organizations. Together, we advance policies, conduct research, and promote practices that support, enable and empower people to live fully as they age.
